University Case Study Questions:

1. When was the rooftop garden established?
2. What motivated the group to establish the rooftop garden?
3. What kinds of plants do you grow?
   a. How long is your growing season?
   b. Do you have any form of season extension?
   c. Approximately how many square feet of space do you grow food?
4. What kind of gardening system do you use (i.e. raised bed, in-ground, hydroponic, etc)
   a. Growing medium?
5. Who primarily operates the garden day-to-day?
6. What if any modifications did you have to make to the building to ensure it was suitable for rooftop gardening?
7. What issues did you come across, or what have the challenges been in implementation?
8. Where/how is the food that is produced utilized?
   a. What kinds of meals do you incorporate the produce into? (i.e fresh salads, soups, hot meals, etc)
   b. How many pounds of produce are you able to produce?
   c. Are there any secondary purposes for the garden space (i.e research & education; environmental benefits; marketing for school)
9. How have you been able to comply with food safety regulations?
10. Where did the funding come from?
11. What is the future for rooftop farming at your university?