Housed within the Graduate School at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, the Multicultural Graduate Network (MGN) seeks to create and foster multicultural spaces through which graduate students can connect to and build supportive communities across campus.

- Fall Welcome Reception — Meet incoming and continuing graduate students and learn about student support resources at UW

- Student Mixers — Socialize and network with fellow graduate students, faculty and staff across the university from backgrounds similar to your own

- End of Year Spring Celebration — End of year gathering to celebrate and reflect on the accomplishments of the year

- Peer Mentor Awards — Recognizes graduate students who exhibit stellar mentorship qualities
