Finding Your Game Console’s MAC Address

To be able to use your game console on ResNet you will need to find your device’s MAC address and use it to register your console on the registration page. The following steps will help you find the MAC address.

A MAC address should be in the form XX:XX:XX:XX:XX:XX where the X’s are numbers from 1-9 and/or letters A-F

Xbox One:

1. If you are signed into a profile, go to My Games & Apps and then Settings. If you are not signed into a profile, just go to Settings.
2. Select Network then Advanced Settings.
3. Scroll down and select Network Settings. Then choose either Wired (Ethernet) or Wireless, depending on how you want to connect.

Playstation 4:

1. Go to Settings in the main menu (looks like a toolbox).
2. Scroll down and select System. Then select System Information.
3. Here you will see the MAC addresses for LAN (Ethernet) and Wi-Fi. Write down the MAC address of the type of connection you will use.

Xbox 360:

1. Press the Guide button on your 360 controller (this is the big X button in the middle).
2. Go to the Settings tab and select System Settings.
3. Scroll down and select Network Settings. Then choose either Wired (Ethernet) or Wireless (depending on how you want to connect).
4. Select Configure Network and go to the Additional Settings tab. Then select Advanced Settings.
5. Here you will see the MAC address for the connection you previously chose, either Wired or Wireless.

Playstation 3:

1. Go to Settings in the main menu (looks like a toolbox).
2. Select Network Settings and scroll down to System Information and select it. The MAC address will be listed there.

Playstation Vita:

1. On the Home Screen, go to Settings.
2. In settings, go to System, then select System Information. Your MAC Address will be listed here.

Wii: (Note: this mac address will be for the Wireless internet, so if you are connecting using an Ethernet to USB adaptor, you will have to use the MAC address of that adaptor.)

1. From the Wii Channel Menu, select the Wii Settings button the in the bottom left hand corner
2. Navigate the settings menu to Internet, and the Console Settings. The MAC Address will be listed there.

Wii U: (Note: this will also be the wireless MAC address)

1. On the Wii U menu screen, select to the System Settings Icon
2. Go to the Internet menu and select it. Then select the “View MAC Address” icon. The MAC address will be listed here.

Nintendo 3DS:

1. On the 3DS Home Screen, select System Settings. Then select Internet Settings.
2. In the Internet Settings, select Other Information and then Confirm MAC Address. The MAC Address will be listed here.
